

Asking Too Much

Ani DiFranco

I want somebody who sees the pointlessness
And still keeps their purpose in mind
I want somebody who has a tortured soul
Some of the time I want somebody who will either put out for me
Or put me out of my misery
Or maybe just put it all the words
And make me go, you know
I never heard it put that way
Make me go, what did you just say? I want somebody who can hold my interest
Hold it an' never let it fall
Someone who can flatten you
With a kiss that hits like a fist
Or a sentence that stops me
Like a brick wall If you hear me talking
Listen to what I'm not saying
If you hear me playing guitar
Listen to what I'm not playing Don't ask me to put words
To all the silences I wrote
And don't ask me to put words
To all the spaces between notes In fact if you have to ask
Forget it, you'll regret it
I'm tired of being the interesting one
I'm tired of having fun for two Just lay yourself on the line
And I might lay myself down by you
But don't sit behind your eyes
And wait for me to surprise you I want somebody who can Make me scream until it's funny
Give me a run for my money
I want someone who can twist me up in knots Tell me, for the woman who has everything
What have you got?
I want someone who's not afraid of me
Or anyone else
In other words, I want someone
Who's not afraid of themselves Do you, do you, do you think I'm, I'm asking too much?
Do you think I am asking too much?
What do you think, I'm asking too much?
Oh, yet do you think I'm asking too much?
What do you think, I'm asking too much? That, that, do you think I'm asking too much?
What do you think, I'm asking too much?

Oh, do you think I'm asking too much?
What do you think, I'm asking too much?
Do you think, I'm asking too much?
