

I Still Believe In You

Edwyn Collins

I'm running through the backwoods
I'm running through the field
When I'm alone I miss you
Back at my house, I don't yetI still believe in you
I still believe in you
I still believe in you
Maybe you want me to, my loveI'm running out of answers
I'm running myself on redBut it's alright, it's alright
The best of us do from time to time
Another night, another night
Not knowing what to doI still believe in you
I still believe in you
I still believe in you
Maybe you want me to, my loveBut it's okay to still hear the voices
Running round your brain
'Cause they still sound the sameI still believe in you
I still believe in you
I still believe in you
Maybe you want me to
