

Think

Drowning Pool

And just before you fade out to
I will hold a place for you Do you remember when we used to
Do you remember when you used to
Do you remember life
Well, as you're led out to the slaughter
You ought to Think about your life you wouldn't give it up
Before you're led off to the slaughter
You ought to And just as soon as you will find
That all of this became your life Do you remember when we used to
Do you remember when you used to
Do you remember life Before you're led off to the slaughter
You ought to And just as soon as all of this so
All of this so pure Do you ever stop
Fucking think
