New Perspective

DJ Drez

I always thought I had it figured out
No need for the benefit of the doubt
I could never look beyond what I could see
I was in control and it was all about me
I'm so sick and tired of this selfish life
I want more
Reach out, reach out
This house is burning down
These walls we've built are caving in
Reach out, don't give up
We're standing on the ashes
With a clearer view and a new perspective
I could feel the hardness breaking up inside
Shattered by the tears falling from their eyes
I just want to push beyond the boundaries
Surrender all control 'cause it's not about me
They're so sick and tired of our selfish lives
They need more
Reach out, we know they need us
Reach out with the love around us
This house is burning down
These walls we've built are caving in
Reach out, it's a new beginning
Don't give up with the love we're giving

We're standing on the ashes
With a clearer view and a new perspective
We need to open up our eyes
See it written on their faces
We are running out of time
Is there no one who will save them?
I'm reaching out
Reach out, we know they need us
Reach out, with the love around us
This house is burning down
These walls we've built are caving in
Reach out, it's a new beginning
Don't give up with the love we're giving
We're standing on the ashes

With a clearer view and a new perspective
Reach out, we know they need us
Reach out with the love around us
This house is burning down
These walls we've built are caving in
Reach out, it's a new beginning
Don't give up with the love we're giving
We're standing on the ashes
With a clearer view and a new perspective
