Hollow

Kathryn Williams

Your need fills the hollow in me
You hit speed to slow the solemn in you
There's a time and a place
But this isn't it, this isn't itCan I live with the hole?
Leaving you behind leaves
Without the plan or the plough
It gets bigger the seed
Of doubt, the seedLike the click of a camera
The world's stopped for my scrutiny
I can magnify raindrops
And see what they slice through
I can push back forgotten
And ring in the new, ring in the newCan I live with the space?
Leaving you behind leaves
Without wanting a light
Constellations appear
Is this my course?
With doubts?
Your need fills the hollow in me
Can I still fill the hollow in you?
