

Baby Girl Window

Robbie Williams

I've got you rainbows seen your sunbeams
I know a place where heaven breathes
And it's through her window
Your baby girl's window I know you're happy where you are Singing to the moon talking to the stars
Through her window
Your baby girl's window There's fingermarks around her soul
But your laughter fills the hole
Through her window
Your baby girl's window Aah I wish you would stay
Aah to see what she made of herself
