We Walk Alone

Rollins Band

nighttime comes to meet me shadows call my name my face is lit by streetlight glowone world on the outside a million worlds within the stars stare down like distant eyesstreets of every city all the rivers of the night they know me now so aloneone more step is one less step
we walk alone
we walk alone
we walk alone
we walk aloneone heart filled with silence one heart filled with pain one heart filled with fire that drowns itself in rainone heart deep in passion one heart in withdrawal one heart overwhelmed by the beauty of it allone heart made to wait and one heart made to crawl one heart overloaded by the horror of it alleyes wide open eyes go blind to the ghetto on the inside the ghetto in the mindwe walk alone
we walk alone
oh yeahthere is no grace to fall from just choices that you make there is no truth to live by but the next breath that you takeeyes wide open eyes so blind to the prison on the inside the prison in the mindwe walk alone
we walk alone
we walk alone
we walk alone
so alone
