

True North

Pinback

[Voice one: ]So dont mind going on Feels like im doing laps around everyone Healing factor turning on Take your pills lets get it off another dayWhen its time to go outside
Please leave your shades at home
You look like such a dick sometimes
Yeah, look whos talking, I know
We all want to go out and play know that it's not know that it is nothing
We all want to go out and play
It's not that bizarre
And know that its nothing
Daylight embracing darkness always feels like they're racing death to the porch Crust of the earth is flaking off changing the time zones confusing the true northHere is a the note that I wont avoid
Hear when I say this now
When static is all that's left on the phone
Feel free to change the channelStarlight is blazing and its the only source of illumination of course
Weight of the humans taken off shedding the ozone Finding a new home
This is the Number please look it over Everything else is just a distracterShrugging extinction off.[Voice Two:]
(Unintelligible)
