

Thy Burdens Are Greater Than Mine

Lynn Morris

In a [G7] little country [C] village
I met a [F] man and he was [C] blind
As I [F] helped him cross the high-[C] way
Oh! [Am] Lord I cried his [C] burdens are [G7] greater than [C] mine. I can [F] see the light of day
I [C] need not feel my way
Yes, thy burdens are [G7] greater than [C] mine. Met a lad while on my travels
Tryin' hard to play the game
Though his leg was very crippled
And he could not speak his name
Yet, he smiled in understandin'
Though life to him had been unkind
And as I watched, I cried in sorrow
Oh! Lord his burdens are greater than mine. I can speak my name aloud
Make my way among the crowd
Yes, his burdens are greater than mine.
