

Happy

Dynamite Boy

Has anybody seen her
Did anybody see her leave
Did anybody see him let her go
You think she really loves him
You think she really cares about what he says
I think she's really fucked up in the head
And she will come back by his house
Smart as a fox, quiet as a mouse
And she will leave with one of his friends
Again and again
But she'll be back tomorrowOh...she's a real nice girl
Oh...greatest in the world
Oh...she's faithful to his friendsI really can't believe this
I really can't believe he won't open his eyes
I really can't believe that's as hard as he tries
Is anybody listening
Does anybody hear what I have to say
Does anybody care that she's gone away
