

Recklessly

Isac Elliot

(Recklessly) Oh girl, it should be me who would take you out
Show you places you always dreamed about
We can run away from here right now, right now, right now (Recklessly) Oh girl, it should be me who would make you smile
Lift you up if you ever fell down if I be with you somehow, somehow, somehow
You don't know what love is before
You've had it all We can be foolhardy
Leave the world behind and go crazy
Wild and free recklessly
I'll make you feel like your'e the one for me
My heart goes boom, boom, boom
When i'm with you, you, you
Don't you see were meant to be
Live on full attack and
Recklessly, recklessly, recklessly Oh girl, it should be me
Who would love you right
Bring the stars to your sky in the midnight
We would laugh
We would cry
We would feel alive, alive, alive, alive So now there we are in this real world
Take the lead and become a girl
Cause now ain't broke now
It's time
It's time
It's time
You don't know what love is before
You've had it all We can be foolhardy
Leave the world behind and go crazy
Wild and free recklessly
I'll make you feel like your'e the one for me
My heart goes boom, boom, boom
When i'm with you, you, you
Don't you see we're meant to be
Live on full attack and
Recklessly (Recklessly) (Recklessly) I don't know if you're the kind of girl
I don't know if you're the kind of girl
But tramp at first unto this woah, woah, woah, woah
But I think I'm your
Think that you're Everything I wanted

So just stay on my woah
Trust me when I say that You're the only one that I'm so crazy for
My heart goes boom, boom, boom
When I'm with you,you,you
Don't you see we're meant to be
Live on full attack and RecklesslyRecklessly 4xYeahRecklessly 2x
