To the End

Saxon

I'll be leaving down that road again tomorrow
I don't know when I'll be back again
There's a feeling in my heart that I must followWhen I leave you all behind I feel the painThis is our world
It's who we are
You wouldn't have me change a thing
Before we go just let me know
Will you be with us to the endMany more have walked this path before us
I hear their voices whisper in the wind
The piper plays the tune and we must follow
No one knows just what the future brings
This is our world
It's who we are
We wouldn't try to change a thing
Before we go just let me know
Will you stand with us to the endWe dim the lights and fade into the distance
But we won't forget the friends we left behind
To the aching deep inside I've no resistance
Only you can make me feel aliveThis is our world
It's who we are
We wouldn't ever change a thing
Before you go just let me know
Are you with us to the endI'll be leaving down that road again tomorrow
I don't know when I'll be back again
There's a feeling in my heart that I must follow
When I leave you all behind I feel the pain
This is our world
It's who we are
We wouldn't ever change a thing
Before you go just let me know
We stand together to the end
Before we go just let me know
Are you with us to the end
