

Adored

Collective Soul

I can say this life is much better today
Everything turns right if wrong gets in the way
Yeah and I've got this feeling, it's something I find hard to explain
See, I wasn't looking but girl, I'm glad I fell in your way
Then she says, oh boy, oh boy
Count your lucky stars, count what you've been wishing for
Oh boy, oh boy
Count the life you live, count how you are now adored
I can say the sun burns much brighter today
I can see my path though clouds darken my way
Yeah and I've got this feeling, it's something I find hard to explain
See, I wasn't looking, but girl, I'm glad I fell in your way
Then she says, oh boy, oh boy
Count your lucky stars, count what you've been wishing for
Oh boy, oh boy
Count the life you live, count how you are now adored
She said she's tired of watching me just wilt and grieve
She said, 'I'm like Jesus, I save those who do believe
Do you, do you believe??
Yeah and I've got this feeling, it's something I find hard to explain
See, I wasn't looking, but girl, I'm glad I fell in your way
Yeah, she says, oh boy, oh boy
Count your lucky stars, count what you've been wishing for
Oh boy, oh boy
Count the life you live, count how you are now adored
Oh boy, oh boy
Count your lucky stars, count what you've been wishing for
Oh boy, oh boy
Count the life you live, count how you are now adored
