Middle of Nowhere

ELLEGARDEN

Lessons once learned are so hard to forget though
They are simply papering over the cracks
You have been creating something I've never had before
But can you deny, you're in the middle of nowhere?Do you think about your dream when you are falling down?
I can help you smile bravely if you have something you really want
Do you think about your dream when no one believes you?
I can help you spread your wingsThough you claim, though you claim
You're not anyone, anyone like me
Are you scared, are you scared of me?
You're not crazy, you're not unreal
You're just complicatedThink about your situation, understand your refusal
Disagreement, disappointment, disapproval, discontent
Your conviction, your stubbornness, your emotion, your confusion
I won't deny you, I won't ignore you, do you hear me as I sing here?Do you think about your dream when you are falling down?
I can help you smile bravely if you have something you really want
Do you think about your dream when no one believes you?
I can help you spread your wingsThough you claim, though you claim
You're not anyone, anyone like me
Are you scared, are you scared of me?
You're not crazy, you're not unreal
You're just complicatedThink about your situation, understand your refusal
Disagreement, disappointment, disapproval, discontent
Your conviction, your stubbornness, your emotion, your confusion
I won't deny you, I won't ignore you, do you hear me as I sing here?
