

Is It O.k.

Serena Ryder

Is it ok
This isn't the way
I need you anymore
Did you forget what you came here for
Is it all right
I dont wanna fight
For things I'll never need
I don't ever want no diamond ring
No it wasn't right
To call you at night
For changing my mind
What's nothing today
Is nothing tomorrow
I needed something from you
An echo of the truth
Now I know why
Two people never made up one
Smokin barreled gun
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow
Is it all right
Baby tonight
I just want you to leave
What you expecting me to be
What did you say
The mystery lays
In the things you'll never see

I want you to be my mystery
No it wasn't right
To call you at night
For changing my mind
What's nothing today
Is nothing tomorrow
I needed something from you
An echo of the truth
Now I know why
Two people never made up one
Smokin barreled gun
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow

I needed something from you
An echo of the truth
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow
Two people never made up one
Smokin barreled gun
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow
I needed something from you
An echo of the truth
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow
Smokin barreled gun
What's nothing today is nothing tomorrow
Is it okay
This isn't the way
I need you anymore
