

Knock It

Fishbone

You all feel large, down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down there It's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawers Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, baby For all you fellas that's knockin' your dong
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
For all you fellas that's slappin' your prong
Don't let the girls go slappin' ya wrong Because it's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawers Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it Hammer to the walls, hammer to the walls
Hammer to the walls, let's knock it For all you fellas just stretching it long
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
For all you fellas just kinging your kong
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong Because it's hot Put your hammer to the walls, baby
And knock your gong It's a little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
Skaditditditditskidaleedotndeedot A little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
Skaditditditditskidaleedotndeedot A little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
A little of that old doodleleedoo
Skaditditditditskidaleedotndeedot
