

Knock It

Fishbone

You all feel large, down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down there
You all feel large but you're looking small down thereIt's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawersPut your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, babyFor all you fellas that's knockin' your dong
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrong
For all you fellas that's slappin' your prong
Don't let the girls go slappin' ya wrongBecause it's hot so take your clothes off
And get in your drawersPut your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock it
Put your hammer to the walls, let's knock itHammer to the walls, hammer to the walls
Hammer to the walls, let's knock itFor all you fellas just stretching it long
Don't let the girls go knockin' ya wrongBecause it's hotPut your hammer to the walls, baby
And knock your gongIt's a little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
SkaditditditditskidaleedotndeeditA little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
SkaditditditditskidaleedotndeeditA little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
A little of that old doodleleedo
Skaditditditditskidaleedotndeedit
