There Ain't No Fool in Ferguson

Mclusky

I can't do anything today, I'm falling apart
I'm sawdust in a sandpaper suit
And the terrible, terrible, terrible thing
Is the weekly laundry runIf you can cope in this hopeless hepatitis piss rag
Molotov cocktail, mono brow shit hole, baby
Then you can cope anywhere at allHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend
Holly worked the, Holly worked the, Holly worked the weekendHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend, HollyI must be leveling today I'm totally sold
There ain't no fool in getting old
And the terrible, terrible, terrible thing
Is we knew it all alongIf you can cope in this hopeless hepatitis piss rag
Molotov cocktail, mono brow shit hole, baby
Then you can cope anywhere at allHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend
Holly worked the, Holly worked the, Holly worked the weekendHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend
Holly worked the work the weekendHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend
Holly worked the, Holly worked the, Holly worked the weekendHolly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend and the weekend worked for Holly
Holly worked the weekend, Holly worked the weekend
Holly worked the, Holly worked the, Holly worked the weekend
