

Bottles & Cans

Rehab

I think about
you know life and what it really means
I drink about it
I think i'm busting at the seams
Don't over think it
I think somebody told me that before
Yea whatever thats my attitude what can I say
Evidently I was raised to be this way
But incidently there's days I really want to change
If heaven sent me
Then why do I feel this crazy got a man down mayday mayday
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Down to my last roach
Here I am looking
Caught between tomorrow and yesterday
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and Stems
Will I ever change, guess it all depends, feels like nothin' ever went my way, tellin' myself it'll be okay
Broken-hearted, I've been listenin' to my head scream
Got it spark it
You hear that or is it just me
What's the matter are you feeling just like me
Has anybody seen my mind i cant find it
Life is flyin'
Somebody rewind it, were all dying
And just runnin' around buyin' it
I think we've gotten a little too open minded, got a man down, mayday, mayday
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Down to my last roach
Here i am lookin' caught between tomorrow and yesterday
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans

Seeds and stems
Will I ever change, guess it all depends
Feels like nothin ever went my way

Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Broke and lonely
Chokin on dro can I borrow another tommorow dear lord
I'm scopin' hopin' some door can open
And my folks don't even know me no more
My kids are growin' and my age is showin
One of the seeds I sow gonna sprout i'm not sure
The doubt and the lure is a couch of valour
With a mirror and a blade and a pile of inpure
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Down to my last roach
Here I am lookin'
Caught between tomorrow and yesterday
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Will I ever change
Guess it all depends
Feels like nothin' ever went my way
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Down to my last roach
Here I am lookin'
Caught between tomorrow and yesterday
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans
Seeds and stems
Will I ever change, guess it all depends
Feels like nothin' ever went my way
Tellin' myself it'll be okay
Bottles and Cans
