Have I Said Too Much?

Slick Shoes

You're running faster than before, but you're not tryin'
High school drama never leaves, it just changes facesI couldn't ask for anything more, even though I'm asking you
I couldn't ask for anything more, even though I'm asking youWhat do you think? I think you should say something
Silence will never tell, tell me when I've said too much
Don't be afraid, I think you are strong enough to make it
Don't let what others say, make you question your beliefsYou couldn't ask for anything more, you've got all that you need
You couldn't ask for anything more, you've got all that you needListen to what you say, don't try to say you're sorry
Sorry won't change a thing, stick to your convictionsWhat do you think? I think you should say something
Silence will never tell, tell me when I've said too much
Don't be afraid, I think you are strong enough to make it
Don't let what others say, make you question your beliefs
