

Solace

Barnstormers

I'm sick, I'm tired
I can't sleep 'cause I'm so wired
I don't know if I can take this
I don't know how to love you
    Tick tock inside
    Tossing, turning, I feel blind
    Sun is up, the rain pours in
        Another day of no end
        Grab it, kick it, smash it
    Love it, loathe it, yeah, yeah
    Hold it, throw it, crave it
    Searching for my solace
        Tiptoe, bend, break
    Cold night air, I start to shake
    My eye's red, my tongue is dry
    These long nights are never kind
    I tried to find it in myself
        A lonely cross to bear
And then tried looking somewhere else
    And I failed
    I looked until my luck ran out
        And then I saw Your face
    You picked me up and brushed me off
        And said, hey
