Warcurse

Kreator

Envision World War Two
In a land that's ruled
By hate and hunger
I guide the fading souls
As bodies drown in flamesAll the world is a cemetary
A new order is dispersed
Like a brutal catharsis
This is the dawning of theWarcurse
Echoes death's eternal call
Hatred is forever
Warcurse
Peace forever be disturbed
Violence is conquering the worldDreams to erase
The ones that they forever dispise
Perverse ideology
From the lowest sons of the soilI am watching ever-present
Suffers from every race
Take a look into the mirror
And you will see my faceWarcurse
Echoes death's eternal call
Hatred is forever
Warcurse
Peace forever be disturbed
Violence is conquering the worldAir raid shelters as the sirens scream
Words to ease all mortal fear
Lift the souls off on the German front
Counting cadavers on the lostSoldiers of hate, nazi leaders and civilians
I will take them to where they belong
For I've seen many wars,
Heard a hundred calls to arms
Salvation is my name ALARM!Pure hate
Is in the air that I breath
Pure hate
A sickness that's known as
Pure hate
Abnormal cruelty brings
No victory to this war
Pure hate
The wise saw it coming

Pure hate
The mighty paved the path
Pure hate
My kiss of death comes
As a blessing not a curseThe curse lives on and on and on and on
And on and on and on and on and on
And on and on and on Gggggrhhhh eternalWarcurse
Warcurse
Warcurse
Warcurse
Violence is conquering the world
