

Golden Gate Gospel Train

Golden Gate Quartet

My Lord she blows
Waa Waah!
Get on board
Better get your ticket now
My Lord, she blows
Waa-Waah

The soul train is coming
You better get your business right
You better set your house in order, friends
You know the train's going to be here tonight
(Ah, Lord)

Don't you hear the whistle blowing
Hear the bells are tolling
Don't you hear the engine exhausting friends,
You know the train's going to be here tonight

Now before she enters the pearly gates of Heaven
Can't you imagine that you can hear this train blow
She blows her power
Lord, so low
You know the train's going to be here tonight.
(Ah, Lord)

Ah, sinner man
Don't you think you can ride this train
You better set your house in order friend
You know the train going to be here tonight

My Lord she blows
Waah!
Waaaaah!
Wa-Waah!
Woah
