

Body

Wet

How come no one never told me, told me
I'd be so lonely, feel so lonely
I'm scared that no one loves me, loves me
Really loves me, loves me, love me
I ask you just to hold me, hold me
Hold me tightly, hold my body
You said that no one loves me, loves me
Like you love me, love me, love me Our love is dangerous
We fill this space with us No one said it would be easy
But I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body
No one said it would be easy
I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body Hold me in your arms
Twist until we fall apart I feel like no one loves me, loves me
Really loves me, love me, love me
I said that no one loves me, loves me
Like you love me, love me, hold me These days are dangerous
We fill this space with us
Our love, our love, our love
And the labors of
We twist and shake and burn until
We're faced with us No one said it would be easy
But I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body
No one said it would be easy
But I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body Meet me on the yard
You could be a star
Hold me in your arms
Shake me 'til I fall apart No one said it would be easy
But I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body
No one said it would be easy

I never knew I'd be so lonely
Now I have you here to hold me
Make me forget I have a body
