Drama

Sonique

Yo yo waddup I know it's you
I had to run out and pick up a few things
If you get to the crib before I get back
You know what to do, the crib is yours
Oh yea I got a surprise for you, it's gonna be sweet
I gotta run, peace, I'm out, I love youWell here I go in the night got the face rockin' on the sound
Got my phone in my hand
My baby hit me two times
I gotta hit her back, she says she's flyin' in tonight
See my baby's been gone for so long
She's back in town it's time to get it on
She told me she would meet me at my spot about eight
That gives me two whole hours to get my shit straightI hit my place around six
It's almost time to see her, almost time to get my fix
I just can't wait to see my baby's face
She's not like all these others on the paper chase
She's the kinda girl that you wanna stay true to There's nothin' that this girl wouldn't do for you, no
I think I hear her in my driveway
Open up the door and this is what she had to say"I found someone to do what you used to
Boy, you thought you were deceivin' me with your infidelity
I found someone who really deserves me, and he's all I need"
I'm makin' my moves, I found someone new
And got no more love for youHow could you go and do this to me baby?
Since you hit town your had me runnin' around actin' crazy
And had I known you treat me this way
We had to swing this drama so another day, baby
This was your night the dream was on beepers on My shit was tight you blew it baby now it's blown
And after all I done for you you messed around and blew the best thing
That ever happened to you babyNow don't go and put this all on me
Since I left town you've been tryin' to run down
On every girl you see
I can't believe you do this to me
I heard about your friend with the red dress
Now why you wanna go and play a game you can't win
You didn't know she was my best friend
And now we're all up in your pockets for your BenjaminsI found someone to do what you used to
Boy you thought you were deceivin' me with your infidelity

I found someone who really deserves me and he's all I need
I'm makin' my moves, I found someone new
And got no more love for youI found someone to do what you used to
Boy you thought you were deceivin' me with your infidelity
I found someone who really deserves me and he's all I need
I'm makin' my moves, I found someone new
And got no more love for youI'm makin' my moves, I found someone new
And got no more love for you
Don't leave me baby, said I love you baby
Said I need you baby, stay right here with me baby
