

Archers

Brand New

Who do you carry the torch for, my young man?
Do you believe in anything?
Do you carry it around just to burn things down? Meet me tonight on the turnpike, my darling
'Cause we believe in everything
If we sweat all these debts then we're sure to drown
So we strap ourselves into this engine now
With a guard that we found a way into the backseat What did you learn tonight?
You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing
You're a voice that never sings, is what I say You were freezing over hell
You were bringing on the end, you do so well
You can only blame yourself, it's what I say All that you've got is to ignore the things I was sorry
And sweep me under the rug
And a beating with a book everyone, the book tells you to love There is an ember in the heart of the kiln
And it's burning hot with love
Burning out my sins until there's nothing but dust
Holding me with care into your cigarette
'Cause the God I believe in worked on a campaign trail What did you learn tonight?
You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing
You're a voice that never sings, is what I say You were freezing over hell
You were bringing on the end, you do so well
You can only blame yourself, it's what I say Who do you carry the torch for, my young man?
Do you believe in anything?
Do you carry it around just to burn things the ground? What did you learn tonight?
You're shouting so loud you barely enjoy this broken thing
You're a voice that never sings, is what I say You were freezing over hell
You were bringing on the end, you do so well
You can only blame yourself, it's what I say Feels like we could escape this
I might throw it away
For fear of the silver sun If you try running a maze
Of your lies, it's too hard to save
You've thrown out everyone

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>