Train Going Backwards

Dramarama

Oh no, there you go again with all your useless
Conversation
Don't cry, don't think I don't know that we Could use a short vacationLeap for me
Sweep for me
Fill my crater
Try me laterSo long, I'll be gone before the dawn of time
Spent on my mission
Too late, have a date with patron saint of Waiters who auditionSleep with me
Weep with me
Fly like nice birdsHow long before you feel that pain?
How long before you heal that pain?
How long before you see that train going
Backwards?Oh no, there you go again you've got some boy
To do your biddin'
Don't lie, don't think I don't know that you've Got secrets you keep hiddenSweep for me
Weep for me
Cry like nice birdsHow long before you heal that pain?
How long before you kill that vein?
How long before you see that train's going
Backwards?Going backwards
Going backwards
