

Bad Decisions

Nubomb

Hook

Cause when that hates up in him
His whole world starts spinning
Mix it with bullies and vengeance
Come on kids lets make some bad decisions
Fuck what the people say
Fuck what they all say.
It's none of their business
We all make some bad decision.

Verse 1

You know your dads got some straps at his pad
You should wait till he passes out drunk
And steal these straps from your dad
It's perfect
Go to school with um
You look cool with um
Load the clip with bullets
Don't be a pussy just fucking pull it.
Why trippin, shit Manson's written worse than that.
That's why this muthafucka catches conservatives crap
If they ask
I was targeting urban black
Swerving past
The middle class kids with fucking alcoholic dads
Who were too drunk to lock their guns up
Stupid dumb fucks
Blame the music?
Nah blame the parents when it comes up
Its just entertainment
Testing the way you're raising your babies
You can love it or hate
But face it
I just can't make every track like dangerous
I'm teaching kids to be famous
By being labeled a raciest
And blaming gauges aimed at your faces
So full of rage cause all they want to be is popular in cool
I blame it all on the way they were raised

And fucking public school
Hook
Cause when that hates up in him
His whole world starts spinning
Mix it with bullies and vengeance
Come on kids lets make some bad decisions
Fuck what the people say
Fuck what they all say.
Itâ€™s none of their business
We all make some bad decision.

Verse 2
Youâ€™re fucking 16 and you still ainâ€™t got your dick touched?
You should pick up a bitch up
Get her drunk
And get your dick sucked
Bro I can help you just find a girl thatâ€™s a little younger
Keep the age range within the double digit numbers
Tell her everything her dad donâ€™t before he fucking sticks her
Buy her flowers
Take her to the mall for coupleâ€™s pictures
Perfect
Fucking worthless bitches play the same games to catch you slippin
Take it from a mang whoâ€™s seen more games than Cal Ripken.
You and her just go get drunk at the movies
If she donâ€™t stop
Till she canâ€™t walk
Sheâ€™s a good to go floozy
Sheâ€™ll pass out once you get her back to her pad.
She wonâ€™t think you raped her if she wakes up next to her dad.
So do that bitch
Donâ€™t be stupid
No condom?
Make sure you pull out
Watch what you cum on
And keep my name out your mouth.

Hook
Cause when them drugs up in
His whole world starts spinnin
Mix it with dumb drunk women
Come on kids
Letâ€™s make some bad decisions
Fuck what the people say
Fuck what they all say.

Itâ€™s none of their business
We all make some bad decision.

Bridge
Iâ€™ve been raped, been raped
Who you think youâ€™re fucking with
Youâ€™re too late, too late
No one can save your shit

Verse 3
Fucking worship Satan
Just to spite a whole nation of hypocrites
Fucking itching
To put an end to my spittin
But I piss in their face
Iâ€™m fucking driven by hate
I was never given shit
Thatâ€™s why I take, take, take
And turn these kids to arsonist, rapist, and fucking drug addicts.
And fuck up the happy home I never had with my mommy and daddy.
Letâ€™s divide the whole nation and fucking murder the children
Eat their fetal bodies
And strangle and rape our women.
Fire bomb the Middle East
And start that culture from scratch
And do all of our business like crooks
Looking through a mask.

Hook
Cause when them drugs up in
His whole world starts spinnin
Mix it with dumb drunk women
Come on kids
Letâ€™s make some bad decisions
Fuck what the people say
Fuck what they all say.
Itâ€™s none of their business
We all make some bad decision.
Cause when that hates up in him
His whole world starts spinning
Mix it with bullies and vengeance
Come on kids lets make some bad decisions
Fuck what the people say
Fuck what they all say.
Itâ€™s none of their business

We all make some bad decision.
