

Heroes

Gamma Ray

We can win, we can lose
We can swallow the bad news
In the end we all know our life is just a show
Everybody plays a game and in our hearts
There's hidden our real face Who is the man who says I'm never gonna cry
It's a lie, it's a lie
And who is the girl who says I'm never gonna sigh
It's a lie, it's a lie On the road to nowhere in the falling rain
I've come to makin' my mind up to get to the point
And here I go again Who is the man who says I'm never gonna cry
It's a lie, it's a lie
No, I'm not the man who says I'm never gonna die
But I'm alive, still alive, alive We are not guilty, we never know the way it goes
Just like heroes, heroes, heroes An all day routine
We can be deadly wounded but we can stand the pain
We might lose the battle but for our ideals
We stand right up and start to fight again We all know our enemies but only God knows
Who will fall lean back and lick your wounds
Fight them all for you You are not guilty you never know the way it goes
Just like heroes, heroes Who is the man who says I'm never gonna cry
It's a lie, it's a lie
No, I'm not the man who says I'm never gonna die
But I'm alive, still alive Heroes, heroes, heroes
We are heroes, heroes
