Shots (Radio Version)

Charm City Devils

(Whiskey shots and a bullet full of cocaine
Out of control on my way to no pain)Yeeeah!I been waiting for so so long
For the call that I dread, that you're gone gone gone
Now the angels and devils they hover above your bedNow you been waiting for so so long
For your ship to come in for young gai to come home
But you never seem to dig out of your holeNo, no, no, such a tortured soul!With your Whiskey shots
And a bullet full of cocaine
Yeah you're on your way
To feelin no no no painWith your Whiskey shots
And a bullet full of cocaine
Yeah you're on your way
To feelin no no no painNow it's been days and you're off again
Now you never learned how or when to say when
Yeah you done lost your looks so your drugs are your only friendsNose in the mirror, ya like what you see?
You a sleeping walking dead popping pill coke junkie
All those lines on your face lord ya know you're getting deepNo, no, no, you're into deepWith your Whiskey shots
And a bullet full of cocaine
Yeah you're on your way
To feelin no no no painWith your Whiskey shots
And a bullet full of cocaine
Yeah you're on your way
To feelin no no no painYou gotta slow it down
It gets so hard when you're highYou gotta slow it down
I see the look in your eyesI've seen it a thousand times
You're gonna dieWhiskey shots and a bullet full of cocaine
Out of control on my way to no painWhiskey shots and a bullet full of cocaine
Out of control on my way to no painWhiskey shots and a bullet full of cocaine
Out of control on my way to no pain
