

Not Enough

Makari

V1- This feeling's strange
This isn't my body, at least
Not anymore, or maybe
I'm not sure I've lost as much hair as I've Lost sleep, and I know that
One day we'll all fall way too deepCH- It's not enough. It's not Enough. You were all I had,
Now you're not here so I
Must do this on my ownIt's not enough. It's not Enough. I still have
Your blood
Running through the arms
That cannot reach you nowV2- My head is a lake
Where I'm floating face down
I stay floating face downCH- It's not enough. It's not Enough. You were all I had,
Now you're not here so I
Must do this on my ownIt's not enough. It's not Enough. I still have
Your blood
Running through the arms
That cannot reach you nowBridge- I'm drowning in
The pools between my ears
Some days the trees and cars
Just don't seem realWithout you
Is there really a me?CH- It's not enough. It's not Enough. You were all I ever hadIt's not enough. It's not Enough. You were all I had,
Now you're not here so I
Must do this on my ownIt's not enough. It's not Enough. I still have
Your blood
Running through the arms
That cannot reach you now
