

Waiting For Wednesday

Lisa Loeb

Waiting for Wednesday, my stomach doesn't hurt enough,
Pain always is the sign.
Waiting for Wednesday, no proof of mine exists,
So I don't have to take it back. Don't want to show you good-bye.
Show you good-bye.
Show you good-bye.
Show you good-bye. But you're waiting for Wednesday.
Waiting for Wednesday.
Waiting for Wednesday, I pray you'll put me on the spot.
I do believe you, that you'll love me that you'll leave me. What will I do when you come near to me?
You'll put me on the spot.
You've been doing this a long, long time,
Not that you're better than me,
But that you do it a lot. Now I'm waiting for Wednesday,
Waiting for Wednesday,
Waiting for Wednesday,
Waiting for Wednesday. I'm gonna show you good-bye,
Show you good-bye,
Show you good-bye,
Show you good-bye. Now I'm waiting for Wednesday,
You're back from out of town,
The west is dry, your mind is clear,
And I don't want to be here,
I don't want to be here,
I don't want to be here,
To show you good-bye. And I'm waiting for Wednesday, to show you good-bye.

Songwriters

LISA LOEB Published by

Lyrics © REACH MUSIC PUBLISHING Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>