

Jezebel

Joan Jett And The Blackhearts

I ain't gonna fool around
I just know what you tried to do
And you know it gets me down
'Cause I really trusted you I don't wanna see ya comin' 'round here no more
And I don't wanna see your face 'round here no more It was such a sneak attack
That's not the way to treat a friend
Every time I turned my back, you got off
But that's all gonna end, right now I don't wanna see ya hangin' 'round here no more
And I don't wanna see ya slippin' through my back door So you'd better go now
You'd better go now
You'd better go right now You'd better go now
You'd better go now
You'd better go right now
Now, now, now, goodbye I don't wanna see your face 'round here no more
I don't wanna hear your voice 'round here no more
I don't wanna see you comin' 'round here no more I don't wanna see you hangin' 'round here no more
I don't wanna see your face 'round here no more I ain't gonna close my eyes
I know just what you'd love to do
It's no good to apologize
'Cause honey, you and me are through Goodbye I don't wanna see you hangin' 'round here no more
And I don't wanna see ya slippin' in my back door You try to ace me
And I don't wanna see your face 'round this place no more
'Cause it's a bad thing you've done
You're tryin' to wreck my fun and I don't want cha here no more I don't wanna see your face 'round here no more
I don't wanna hear your voice 'round here no more
I don't wanna see you hangin' 'round here no more Get out, Jezebel
No more
