Fitness to Purpose

Nitzer Ebb

In the battle, in the bed
In the battle, in the bedThe pair is in a heat, the heat
The pair is in a heat, the heat
The heat of flesh
The heat of fleshAnd the mark of your nails
And the salt on your lips
The mark of your nails
The salt on your lipsThe mark of your nails
The salt on your lips
They came between us
They came between usAnd the bodies flow
And the bodies twist
Well, this flame is on
While the light is onIn the battle, in the bed
In the battle, in the bedThe pair is in a heat, the heat
The pair is in a heat, the heat
The heat of flesh
The heat of fleshAnd your head flies back
Your head flies back
To the pillow
To the heatYour head flies back
Your head flies back
To the pillow, to the heat
To the pillow, to the heatTo ecstasy, to ecstasy
Ecstasy, the battleground
Ecstasy, the battlegroundIn the battle, in the bed
In the battle, in the bedThe pair is in a heat, the heat
The pair is in a heat, the heat
The heat of flesh
The heat of fleshAnd the mark of your nails
And the salt on your lips
The mark of your nails
The salt on your lipsThe mark of your nails
The salt on your lips
They came between us
They came between usAnd the bodies flow
And the bodies twist
Well, this flame is on
The light is onAnd your head flies back

Your head flies back
To the pillow, to the heat
To the pillow, to the heatTo ecstasy, to ecstasy
Ecstasy, the battleground
Ecstasy, the battlegroundForm and our foul sounds
Form and our foul sounds
From battle, familiar
Battle, familiarWe'll do it again
We'll do it againIn the battle, in the bed
In the battle, in the bedThe pair is in a heat, the heat
The heat of flesh
The heat of fleshAnd your nails
And your lips
And your flesh
And the heatYour nails, your lips
Your flesh, the heat
Your nails, your lips
The flesh, your heat
Your nails, your lips
Your flesh, the heatIn the battle, in the bed
In the battle, in the bedDo it again, we'll do it again
Again, again, again, again
Again, again, again, again
