

Maybe (feat. Andrew Ashong and Sampha)

SBTRKT

Walking round the citadel
Maybe I'll find something
Maybe you're here, maybe you're there
Maybe I'll never know
The luck was finding me now
Hanging out round town
Calling me in, calling me in
Coloured me in right now If you're out there
Tell me what's out there
Maybe there's something, maybe there's something
Maybe I'll never know
If we all go up
And nothing comes down
Oh, I like the sound of
Oh, I like the sound of that Houston, are you with me now?
I'm looking for more than a state of lust
I'm looking for more than stains of drugs
Still, I can't trust anymore, I See with my eyes, doesn't mean it's real Feel with my hands, I can't touch her still
I'm still in love with her See, I was hopeless
I'm feeling like my heart's got feelings too
I'm feeling like I can't stop dreaming
Dreaming of you Tell me out there
Somewhere out there
Maybe you're hiding, maybe you're dodging
Maybe I'll never know
Somewhere out there
Behind the sky
There's an answer all around me
I can't see nothing but sadness See, I need you
And you need you, too
So please, so please
Look after you
Oh, darling
