From Earth I Rose

Amorphis

Darkness was my light
Muteness was my tongue
Death was my life
Matter was my spiritI am a brother to the fire
To fire a brother I am
From breast of maidens three
I drank the black milk
Devoured the white milk
I swallowed the red milkBrother to the fire I am
Brother to the fireI've lain in the dark bowels
Bowels of this marshland
Dead beneath the soil
Under the waters, oblivious to all
Devoid of all knowing
