

Doubt Your Doubts

Brent Rivera

We all fall down
But we get back up again, get back up again
If it all runs out
That's when life has just begins, yeah
No better time than now, let's all go out
Leave the drama, bring your friends

When's the last time you said yes?
Put the cell on silent, cut all the stress
No texting, no checking
Status is just look around, take a breath in When's the last time you had a laugh?
Enjoyed the present, looked past
All the struggling, all the hustling
If we put each other first, we can love again

'Cause if you try, you can learn to win
And if you let go, you can finally live
It's just a state of mind
'Cause once you fly, you won't be scared to swim
Don't let nobody bring you down

Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

When's the last time you said no?
You had a couple worries and you let it show
You had a few bumps in the road, you couldn't crack the code
Well that's OK, let it go
'Cause if it's meant to be, it will come true
You don't need to run, if you want to
Even if you cry, you can smile about every little thing that makes you, you (You're beautiful)

Remember to be happy once, and again
'Cause even if you lose, you can call a friend

Yeah, in this life, we get to choose where we go
But sometimes we don't really know
So we eat some pigs feet and mix it in

'Cause if you try, you can learn to win
And if you let go, you can finally live
It's just a state of mind
'Cause once you fly, you won't be scared to swim
Don't let nobody bring you down

Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Just let it all go
You know it's like drinking milk out of a wine glass
Remind yourself it's OK not to be perfect
You're one of a kind
Love is an open door
Go and jump through it
I thought I told you I was a professional singer in the car
So if you ride with me, let me hear you say

Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Trouble your troubles and doubt your doubts
And to the air, sing it loud
Say yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
