

You're So Creepy

Ghost Town

For so long now I've been coming to your rescue (got me thinking I'll get you)
And I'm serious when I say I'm over it
I'm over it (and your fuckin' lies) That you'll stick around
Stay on my side of town
Now I'm covered in blood and I'm feeding off your pretty little lies For once why can't you just come and chase me
Dig up my grave and save my body
Now I'm rotting to the bone
But my hearts still beatin'
Hopin' you won't leave me Creepy girls
You're just my style
Blood-red lipstick
You don't smile
Falling victim to your fantasy
Damn, I love it that you're so creepy Now you're risking it all
For some creepy girl
With a blacked out rage that'll cast a spell
Don't tempt her "she's got those evil eyes Now you're risking it all
For some pin-up doll
Who drinks in the AM
Fucks in the PM
Treats all the boys like she don't need 'em Creepy girls
You're just my style
Blood-red lipstick
You don't smile
Falling victim to your fantasy
Damn, I love it that you're so creepy [2x]
Creepy girls
You're just my style
Blood-red lipstick
You don't smile
Falling victim to your fantasy
Damn, I love it that you're so creepy
