

You Are Love

Jan Clayton

You are justice for every oppression
You're forgiveness for every confession
You are beauty, goodness, blessing, You are love
You are healing for every sickness
You are power in every weakness
You are mighty, holy, faithful, You are love
Oh God of the heavens
You descended from your throne
Gave Your Son for our ransom
And by this all men will know that You are love
We were thirsty, You gave us water
We were orphans, now You are our Father
We were desperate, hungry, seeking, You are love
Oh God of the heavens
You descended from your throne
Gave Your Son for our ransom
And by this all men will know
Oh God of the heavens
You descended from your throne
Gave Your Son for our ransom
And by this all men will know that You are love
You are love
Everlasting, never ending
All consuming, You are love
Everlasting
(Everlasting)
Never ending
(Never ending)
All consuming, You are love, You are love
Oh God of the heavens
(Everlasting)
You descended from your throne
(Never ending)
Gave Your Son for our ransom
(All consuming, You are love)
And by this all men will know
Oh God of the heavens
(Everlasting)
You descended from your throne
(Never ending)
Gave Your Son for our ransom
(All consuming, You are love)
And by this all men will know that You are love
(Everlasting)
You are love
(Never ending)
