

Holding Out for Grace

Tait

I believe
I believe in who You are
And when You speak
I hear You deep inside my heart It's more of You I want, so take me back
To the start show me the bigger part
I know there's so much more to life
So won't You open up my eyes, I want to see And I, I'm falling on my face
I'm holding out for Grace
Send Your Spirit down
Illuminate this place, my Lord My Love, my peace
Without You, I'm incomplete
And in my time of need
I know You're watching over me And I can't wait to lose myself in Your embrace
You're my hiding place
I know there's so much more to life
So won't You meet me here tonight, I want to see And I, I'm falling on my face
I'm holding out for Grace
Send Your Spirit down
Illuminate this place Let Your kingdom come
Heal the broken ones
Oh, Father shine Your light
On Your daughters and Your sons, ohh In my mind
There's a battle going on and on for my life
But this time
I'm gonna give You everything I have inside, ohh And I, I'm falling on my face
I'm holding out for Grace
Send Your Spirit down
Illuminate this place Let Your kingdom come
Heal the broken ones
Father shine Your light
On Your daughters and Your sons, my Lord God, our God, how beautiful You are God, our God, how beautiful You are
God, our God, You're beautiful, so beautiful
