The Birdman

DJ Envy

Hopelessly a man starts to feed your day
Once he was there you never looked back
How did you think that his words might just fade away
He seemed harmless enough
So you let him in and now you'll payI can't see him but he's stalking in my thoughtsHow does it feel
When you can't concentrate, I just stare
And all of your daydreams
Are a seesaw for him to play onAnd how does it feel when he calls your name
You plug your ears but it's not the same
How do you know when he pulls you back?
Oh, he pulls you back, back, backGet it on, get it on, get it on, get it on
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
Birdman wouldn't lie
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
But I just can't trust him tonightHow do you forget a stranger
That plagues your days?
We arm ourselves
When there's nothing to fear, right? WrongHow does it feel when he comes to pass?
There's something there but it's not quite right
How does it know, does it make you mad?
Oh ,it makes you mad, mad, mad, madGet it on, get it on, get it on, get it on
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
The birdman wouldn't lie
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
It's all on the other sideI feel him, I feel him close
And I feel him, I feel himBut how do we find
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
The birdman wouldn't lie
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
But I just can't trust him tonightNobody's wrong, nobody's right
The birdman wouldn't lie
Nobody's wrong, nobody's right
And people and all you peopleGet it on, get it on, get it on, get it on Get it on, get it on and on and on
Get it on, get it on, get it on, get it on
Get it on, get it onI feel him, I feel him close
I feel him, I feel him close
I feel him, I feel him closeI feel
