Love/hate Heartbreak

Halestorm

Why do you waste my time?
Two steps, I don't rewind
Feeling I can't define
I give back to you
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
I see my demise
From behind your eyes
I can't pass you by
I put back to you
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Between love, between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak
This could be suicide
A kiss with these red knives
Why am I traveling by?
I give back to you
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Try on one full size
I thought boys don't cry
You're my perfect lie
Back to you
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
Between love, between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak
Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you

It's a love hate heartbreak
Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak
Between love between hate
Shake the silence back but it's too late
And it haunts you, and it haunts you
It's a love hate heartbreak
Give it all away, take it all away
Give it all away, take it all away
