

End Of Our Rope

Nocturnal Rites

I've been too blind to see
It's not the world I know
    You promised me
But sometimes we hide
    Who we really are
You say you're not sorry for all that you did,
For going too farWhile we are trying harder,
    Falling deeper
    But we are only what we are
Nothing can help us from falling
    Hoping we'd come to the fore
I'm not afraid, and I won't be
    Your slave anymore
No one can stop us from trying
    Hoping we'd settle the score
We're at the end of our rope
    At the end of our rope
What's left to know on the other side?
Maybe it's time I rest my troubled mind
    Well sometimes we fight
    What will never die
Seems like we know that we're trying
    Too hard, it's sucking us dry
