Sentimental

Christian Walz

Calling me away
Why are you so sentimental?
And do you really wanna live like this?
I never said it, you never said it
(Woo, hoo)
I never said I would
I never said I could now
I never said it, you never said it
I'm standing in the wrong place
I'm standing in the wrong place
Pushing me away
Why are you so sentimental?
Does it really have to hurt like this?
I never said it, you never said it
(Woo, hoo)
I never said I would
I never said I could now
I never said it, you never said it
I'm standing in the wrong place
I'm standing in the wrong place
I only want to get out
I only want to get out
I only want to get out
I only want to get out
I've never fallen
But I never ever seem to get there
I'm moving forward
But it seems so far to there
I never said it, you never said it
(Woo, hoo)
I never said I would
I never said I could now
I never said it, you never said it
You've gotta let it go
You've gotta let it go
I never said it, you never said it
I'm standing in the wrong place
I'm standing in the wrong place
I only wanna get out

I only wanna get out
