

Young Love (feat. Koko LaRoo) [Burns Remix]

Felix Cartal

You do wrong when you know what is right
Just to feel the rush
And you, you might jump when you know you're too high
Just to feel a buzz And we all keep searching for the innocence
Even though it seems to good to be real
And we all keep reaching for the second chance
A second chance to feel
Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight
Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight You still see when it's out your sight
But you know it's there
And you still believe when it's so hard to find
But you know you're near And we all keep searching for the innocence
Even though it seems to good to be real
And we all keep reaching for the second chance
Another chance to feel
Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight
Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight Am I a fool to keep keep on hurting
Will I ever know if I am a fool to keep on searching
I won't stop trying Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight
Oh oh oh
I'm looking for young love tonight
