

Deliver Me

Def Leppard

I'm tired of feelin' hateful
I'm tired and I can't breathe
So tired I would be grateful
If you close the door when you leave That's me diggin' my heels in That's me with the Holy Ghost
Excuse me but I don't remember
Where were you when I needed you most And I'm tied to the sky
As you claw at my eyes
And I wait for the flood
I swim in blood As I crawl to my knees
And I beg your disease
Taste the ice on your breath
As you catch your death I close my eyes
Embrace me
Deliver me Hey you, the voice of reason
Hey you, are you listening to me?
It's you that I can't believe in
I don't buy what I don't see
Say good bye 'cause I don't need And I'm tied to the sky
As you claw at my eyes
And I wait for the flood
I swim in blood As I crawl to my knees
And I beg your disease
Taste the ice on your breath
As you catch your death And I'm tied to the sky
As you claw at my eyes
And I wait for the flood
I swim in blood As I crawl to my knees
And I beg your disease
Taste the ice on your breath
As you catch your death I close my eyes, embrace the wave
Abandon me, save the day
That I won't see, deliver me
