

Sun

Pedro Gabriel Amaral

I know I'll never be the best
I know I'll never be the one in your bed
My senses telling me to go fast
My nerves are telling me to chill man
It is my get away In the morning birds will sing for rain
After noon the rain will pour until night
Early night it's pink blue green and white
Late at night the sun will shine its bright light
The sun will fade away I know I'll never be the best
I know I'll never be the one in your bed
Your bed, your bed
Oh your bed
It is my get away
And the sun will fade away
Ah ah, ah ah
Fade away, fade away
