

One Last Prayer

Forced Order

One last time We're here at last at the threshold of a new life Life's about to be different Our memories will help us see the light
We are all gathered now, for one last time The moments finally come to join our hands together And show the world, we're one.
We thank you Lord for everything we've gone through Life would have been meaningless without you
We can't forget the laughter's and the tears the ups and downs through all these years
We have finally realized that each of us is a gift of love
We have grown closer Through all the years we've been together Through the smiles and worries we've shared
We know that God has called each of us To love one another And show that we care
Let's face the future now
And make our dreams a reality forever, to last
We thank you Lord for everything
we've gone through Life would have been meaningless without you
We can't forget the laughter's
and the tears the ups and downs
through all these years
We have finally realized that each of us is a gift of love
We thank you Lord for everything we've gone through Life would have been meaningless without you
We can't forget the laughter's
and the tears the ups and downs through all these years
We have finally realized that each of us is a gift of love
We thank you Lord for the people And the times we've learned to love.
