Enchanted Land

Sodom

From the dawn of time we came
To find the place of promise
Moving silently down
Through war disabled centuriesLiving many secret lives
Unrecognised by human eyes
Struggling to reach the aim
To dwell in perpetualityWe are the messengers
Of inmost thought
Our words of confession
Fall away to noughtDomination of the universe
Contains our vital interests
Swift coursing blood of our veins
Cured the grieving painsWhen the few who remain
Will battle to the last
For enchanted lands
Take charge of reign
Leave behind the past
Early history in our hands
Living in the land of promise
Beyond the other worldOur mission is done
Fear neither men nor fates
Pray for disease
But escape your soulDuration of 100 lives
Get the worlds undoing
Because no one ever knows
We are among youFrom the dawn of time we came
To find the place of promise
Moving silently down
Through war disabled centuriesLiving many secret lives
Unrecognised by human eyes
Struggling to reach the aim
To dwell in perpetuality
