Tumblin'

Tonex

So you talkin' 'bout your hopes and dreams
Well, sweet dreams are made of these
Opposition negativity are an unfortunate reality
Check me, check me
But you gotta know your purpose
And you gotta know your destiny
Faith is never tangibility, don?t ever trust your visibility
Are you feeling me?
You gotta believe provisions have already been made
So chill and have a glass of lemonade
His thoughts of you are not evil, He has a plan for you
Yo, the devil is a liar, God?s Word is true
Name it, claim it, it's long overdue
Every mountain in my way
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Negative things that people say
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Every mountain, every hill
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
You can?t always go by how you feel
Just know it?s gonna all come tumblin' down, down
If they ain?t sayin? nothin?
That most likely means you ain?t doin? nothin?
Want the anointing, gotta go through somethin?
Like people smiling but you know they frontin?, frontin?, feel it
But the harder you work the further away it seems
But if God gave you a ministry a gift or a calling
Don?t give up on your dreams
You gotta believe provisions have already been made
So chill and have a glass of lemonade
His thoughts of you are not evil, He has a plan for you
Yo, the devil is a liar, God?s Word is true
Name it, claim it, it's long overdue
Every mountain in my way

It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Negative things that people say
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Every mountain, every hill

It?s gonna come tumblin? down
You can?t always go by how you feel
Just know it?s gonna all come tumblin' down, down
Every mountain in my way
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Negative things that people say
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Every mountain, every hill
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
You can?t always go by how you feel
Just know it?s gonna all come tumblin' down
Every mountain in my way
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Negative things that people say
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Every mountain, every hill
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Can?t always go by how you feel
Just know it?s gonna all come tumblin' down, down
Every mountain in my way
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Negative things that people say
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Every mountain, every hill
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
Can?t always go by how you feel
Just know it?s gonna all come tumblin' down, down
Every mountain, every hill
It?s gonna come tumblin? down
